- Public domain occupation is free for the shooting of works cinematographic and audiovisual (cinema films, television films, audiovisual series, documentaries, short films) in accordance with Resolution n°28.3 of 23 October 2009.

  In return for the public domain being free of charge, the production company undertakes to include the words « This film has received support from the City of Nice » in the title credits. It also undertakes to provide the City of Nice with royalty-free photos which it may use for institutional communication, in a strictly non-commercial setting, on the media and communication networks of the City of Nice

- The filming of advertising films is subject to a flat fee for the occupation of public domain. For occupancy of establishments the local authority, an additional percentage of the basic rate for the establishment's occupancy is applied. The amount of the fee and percentage are set according to the size of the film crew

- In both cases, the additional expenses incurred to host these shoots or Photographs taken on the public domain or in the occupied site (parking, staff, municipal police officers etc.) are charged according to the collection of rates in force.
